Court: case for mention

Parties not in court

APPEARANCE: S. A. Aruwa (SAN) for the Complainant/Applicant

With C. N. Eze

This matter was filed on the 26/4/2024, filed along with an application ex parte because of the nature of the relief sought and the need to protect the Applicant pursuant to the provisions of violence prohibition Act 2015.

However the matter was fixed for today that since our application was not set down for hearing our application was written to the court there the motion ex parte be heard and the difficulties of the complainant to meet the financial implication of having to be served.

That the res upon which this suit stands has been destroyed by the defendant; the said building has been destroyed. Hence we shall at this point withdraw his matter in it's entirety.

Court: the oral application made by the learned silk S. E. Aruwa for the withdrawal of this suit is hereby granted as prayed.

Hence case No. CV/418/24 between Mrs Juliet Ango ad Major Gen. Samuel Ango (Rtd) & 3 ors is hereby withdrawn and the case is hereby terminated.
