RECORD OF PROCEEDING

Claimant absent

B.J Akpan for the claimant

The defendant have been served, she is not in court and not represented. The matter is for defence, the defendant have not filed any process. We ask that the court foreclose the defendant of her request to enter defence and adjourn for judgment.

Court - have you given evidence in this case? By my records, you have not given evidence in this matter. Why are you asking that the right of the defendant be foreclosed and adjourned for judgment?

B.J Akpan - I am sorry about that, I must have gotten my file mixed up. We are sorry about that. We are asking for a short date.

Court - this matter is hereby struck out for want of diligent prosecution in accordance with the small claims court practice direction of 2022. A claimant under the small claims practice Direction cannot be excused for lack of diligent Prosecution, thus this file for lack of a better word have been abandoned before the court while the time continue to count. The small claim court proceeding is time bound.
